The Lakeland-Detroit Area Council of Governments (LDAACOG) Local Area Planning Council (LAPP) rejected the proposal on Thursday in a 4-3 vote. The plan would have created a road that would connect Macomb County in the north and St. Clair County in the south. The plan would have included four commuter buses that would make 19 stops. Bus drivers would be paid at a minimum of $15 an hour, which would make a single ride $15.50. The proposal called for the creation of a nine-lane roadway that would have covered 280 miles. The road would have included 32 miles of bus-only lanes, 11 miles of dedicated bus stations, 3 miles of sidewalks, seven transit-only bridges, four overpasses, eight utility tunnels, three park-and-ride lots, and 13 overpasses. Supporters of the plan say the road would increase the amount of traffic that utilizes the road between Macomb County and St. Clair County. They say that the proposed route is viable for commuter 82157476af
